A Picture of Me

Age _____

A Promise is a statement declaring my intent to do whatever it takes to follow through with what I said I would do.

When I am promised something, I expect it to happen. If it doesn't, I feel _____.

A Girl Scout tries to keep promises she makes. A wise Girl Scout tries to only make promises she knows can keep.

This is the Girl Scout Promise:

"On my honor, I will try to serve God and my country,
to help people at all times,
and to live by the Girl Scout Law."

My Honor is;

- How I feel about myself
- How people I love feel about me.

Honorable Women are trustworthy, kind, honest, and dependable. One honorable woman I know is:

I want _____ to know I am honorable. I can show I am honorable
by:
Telling the _____;
Keeping my _____;
And making amends when I
make a _____.

My Country is

One way I can serve my country is to

In my family, we call God
"_____." One way
I can serve God is

"To help people at all times"
is a big goal. Helping people means doing things I am capable of doing...so long as I am safe; and my trusted adult has told me it's ok. If I don't know for sure, I will ask my _____.

To "Live by the Girl Scout Law" means to first
Learn about the law,
and then Practice using
it in my life.
I know I won't be able to do it perfectly, and that's ok.
Nobody does! I only have to try and try again.

I Know the Girl Scout Promise!
